

With more than 20 years of experience in the scientific zebrafish husbandry field, Danio Lab has a wealth of knowledge and skills in developing solutions, advancing programs, and refining practices in this space. Having worked with a broad range of clients, organizations, universities, and institutions over years, Danio Lab has provided guidance, technical expertise, and training for a wide variety of individuals and teams of all ages, backgrounds, and experience levels – including husbandry techs, vet techs, aquatic specialists, research assistants, students, lab/facility managers, PIs, and more. We can provide both in-person and off-site assistance via call, video, or email depending on your needs.

Experience

- 20+ years of experience in the scientific zebrafish husbandry & system design field
- Have developed solutions for clients all around the world

Areas of Expertise

- Zebrafish husbandry & operations - system design & maintenance, installations, water quality, health monitoring & diagnostics, regulatory compliance, biosecurity, SOPs, & more

Specialized Consulting

- In-person & remote technical assistance
- Provide basic to premium-level service & support depending on your needs

Personalized Training

- In-depth tailored sessions & plans for individuals & groups
- On & off-site training is available based on your needs & preferences